

ACLM Accreditation and Faculty Disclosure Statement

American College of Legal Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. American College of Legal Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of five (5) AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™] being calculated at .5 credits per completed e-poster. Physicians should claim only credit commensurate with the extent of the number of completed eposters in this online activity.

ACLM Disclosure Policies

Unapproved Uses of Drugs/Devices: In accordance with requirements of the FDA, the audience is advised that information presented in this continuing medical education activity may contain references to unlabeled or unapproved uses of drugs or devices. Please refer to the FDA approved package insert for each drug/device for full prescribing/utilization information.

Potential Conflict of Interest: It is the policy of the American College of Legal Medicine to ensure that its CE activities are independent, free of commercial bias and beyond the control of persons or organizations with an economic interest in influencing the content of CE. Everyone who is in a position to control the content of an educational activity must disclose all relevant financial relationships with any commercial interest (including but not limited to pharmaceutical companies, biomedical device manufacturers, or other corporations whose products or services are related to the subject matter of the presentation topic) within the preceding 12 months.

DISCLOSURES

The course director(s), planners, faculty, authors(s) and reviewer(s) of the combined e-poster activity have no relevant financial relationships to disclose.